WILL HAVE A FIGHT

If England Tries to Whip the Boers—Orange Free State Aroused.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—While the precise result of the secret session of the raid of the Orange Free State is not yet made here, President Steyn's speech at the opening of the session is regarded as an almost infallible indication of the attitude which the Free State will take. Commenting from this point of view, the London morning papers are all impressed with the added gravity of the situation, and murmurs are beginning to be heard regarding the dilatoriness of the government in getting troops forward. Military men are said to be impatient. They assert that everything is ready and that they are only waiting for orders.

It is recognized that the attitude of the Orange Free State makes the original estimates based upon Dutch neutrality too small. Evidently a much larger force will be required.

The government is faced with something like a dilemma. The leader of the opposition has publicly denounced the precipitancy of the colonial office in forcing on a conflict. Therefore, ministers are disinclined to convocate parliament. If, on the other hand, so large an expenditure as the apparent attitude of the Orange Free State would involve should become necessary, the government would be obliged to summon parliament in order to get adequate supplies. It is understood that the money question accounts for the dribbling manner in which the troops are being forwarded.

German military experts, realizing the seriousness of the campaign before Great Britain, are commenting with astonishment upon the fact that England is so behindhand in her preparations. In Berlin, it is also believed that Dr. Leyds is acting as President Kruger's evil genius and misleading him by reports that he is likely to get sympathy, if not assistance, from some of the European powers.

No member of the Cape cabinet was present at the meeting of the African members of the Cape parliament yesterday.

A dispatch from Pretoria announces that arms continue to be served to the burghers.

BLOEMFONTEIN, Orange Free State, Sept. 23.—The volksraad met with a full attendance. President Steyn said the Transvaal had been despoiled by the British diplomatic agent at Pretoria, Conyngham Greene, and he practically accused the imperial government of a breach of faith. He said he was disinclined to advise the Transvaal government to accept the latest British demands. The present critical state of affairs could not be a matter of indifference to the Orange Free State, which was bound by treaty to afford assistance to the Transvaal, and he had, therefore, convened the volksraad to decide what attitude should be taken. He said differences could be solved by arbitration. The volksraad went into secret session.

THE CONGREGATIONAL COUNCIL

Representatives of British Churches Introduced—Reception to Delegates.

BOSTON, Sept. 23.—The session of the international council of Congregationalists was opened with devotional exercises in Tremont temple. Rev. Alex. MacKenzie, D. D., of England, introduced several representatives of British churches, among them being Rev. Dr. John Robson of Aberdeen, moderator, and Rev. Dr. Blair of Dunblane, Scotland, ex-moderator of the synod of the United Presbyterian church of Scotland.

President-elect George Harris, D. D., of Amherst college, was introduced as the first essayist before the council and read a paper entitled, "Fundamental Principles in Theology."

The council later attended a reception at the state house tendered by Governor Wolcott. When the council recessed, Rev. Alexander Gosman, principal of the Congregational college of Victoria, Australia, read a paper on "The Theology of the Order of Nature."

A paper on the "Evangelical Principle of Authority" was read by Rev. Dr. Peter Taylor Forsythe of Cambridge.

Whelan Defended Rampage Deal.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Corporation Counsel Whelan, Justice Charles H. Travis, President Silas B. Dutcher and Engineer Peter A. Nostrand were the witnesses put on the stand at the Market investigation of the affairs of the Ramapo Water company. Whelan defended the Ramapo water deal. Nostrand refused to turn over certain papers unless Dutcher ordered and Dutcher left the room during an argument with Moss.

For Election in Porto Rico.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The war department has received copies of the general order issued by Governor General Davis of Porto Rico, prescribing the manner in which the municipal election should be held at Adjuntas. The Australian ballot was to be used, and the qualifications of a voter was that he must be a bonafide resident of the municipality, 21 years old, a taxpayer, or else able to read or write, and a resident of the island for ten years.

CONFLICTING

Statements About the G. A. R.—Roe Says They Will Not March.

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Governor Roosevelt, speaking at the Otsego county fair, said in part: "I telegraphed to the major general commanding the national guard that the Grand Army is to have the right of position or anything it wants in the parade."

Governor Roosevelt is General Roe's superior officer and the Grand Army will probably march in the place of honor.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—At General Roe's office it was said that the refusal of the Grand Army of the Republic organization to take part in the Dwyer land parade was final. General Roe is not disposed to recede an inch from his position. The ex-confederate veterans will not march either, being unable to prepare in time. The line of march of the parade as at present agreed upon follows:

General Roe and aides.

Sons' band.

The men and officers of the Olympia.

Admiral Dewey and Mayor Van Wyck in a carriage.

Rear Admiral Sampson in a carriage with a committee.

The sailors of the North Atlantic.

Regulars of the United States army.

Governor Roosevelt of the head of the New York state militia.

The Forty-eighth Highlanders of Toronto.

The naval reserves of New York.

Governor of Vermont and his staff and the military organizations of the following named states, to march in order of their admission to the Union:

Pennsylvania militia.

New Jersey militia.

Georgia militia.

Connecticut militia.

Maryland militia.

South Carolina militia.

New Hampshire militia.

Rhode Island militia.

Ohio militia.

Florida militia.

Mississippi militia.

Missouri militia.

Texas militia.

District of Columbia militia.

Veterans of the Spanish-American war.

"It will give me much delight," wrote Rear Admiral Schley, "to be present and to participate in the city's honor to the peerless Dewey."

The mother and widow of Captain Grady of the Olympia will be present at the celebration.

HIGHEST DEGREE CONFERRED.

Five Candidates Received 1. O. O. F. Grand Decoration of Chivalry.

DETROIT, Sept. 23.—Before about 2,000 people in Light guard armory, Major General R. A. Elliott of Chicago conferred the grand decoration of chivalry, the highest step in Odd Fellowship, upon nine candidates.

In the trials, Lewis, No. 3, Toledo, won third prize in class A, amount $100, being the only lodge in this section winning any prize.

The sovereign grand lodge amended the constitution of the local lodges so as to make married daughters, sisters and mothers of Odd Fellows and deceased Odd Fellows eligible to membership whether they are married to Odd Fellows or otherwise. Heretofore marriage to a non-Odd Fellow rendered them ineligible. The mileage and per diem committee made its report, showing total expense for the sovereign grand lodge meeting of $26,942.

THREE DESPERADOES ARRESTED.

Tried to Assault a Woman and Attempted to Stop a Paycar.

TOLEDO, Sept. 23.—Threedesperadoes named George Merrill and George Baker of Chicago and a man named Fisher attempted to assault a woman at Wausau. They escaped on a Lake Shore freight train coming east. On the way Fisher was thrown off by the breaking in two of the train. The others compelled the engineer to back up and got Fisher, who was seriously injured. Just then the Lake Shore paycar came along and they tried to stop it, but the engineer would not stop.

They were arrested when the train reached Toledo. Fisher was taken to a hospital and the other two were turned over to the Wausau authorities.

Soldier Died of Typhoid Fever.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Gen. Brooke informed the war department of the death of Private William M. Dawson, hospital nurse, which occurred at Santa Clara, Cuba, on the 19th, from typhoid fever.

Admiral Montojo's Sentence.

MARLB, Sept. 23.—Rear Admiral Montojo, who commanded the Spanish naval forces in the battle of Manila bay, has been condemned to retirement without the right of promotion.

Bank Cashier's Assault Dead.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—The man who, under the name of "Walter Lawton," inflicted fatal injuries upon Frederick J. Filbert, the aged cashier of a private bank in Palestine, a town near here, died from a gunshot wound sustained in a struggle with Farmer Plaggio, who tried to rescue Filbert from his assailant. Filbert was still unconscious.

Industrial Commission Resumed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The industrial commission resumed its hearings, and Horace M. Eaton, general secretary and treasurer of Book and Shoe Workers' Union of America, was the witness.

Two Deaths; 24 New Cases.

KEY WEST, Fla., Sept. 23.—Twenty-four new cases of yellow fever and two deaths is the record for 24 hours.
